

ORDINANCE No. 816
ORDINANCE ADDING SECTION 17-2.1
TO THE LODI CITY CODE SETTING FORTH
THE MAXIMUM AGE OF EMPLOYMENT TO BE 65 YEARS

The City Council of the City of Lodi does ordain as follows:

Section 1. There is hereby added to the Code of the City of Lodi a new section No. 17-2.1 to read as follows:

MAXIMUM AGE OF EMPLOYMENT

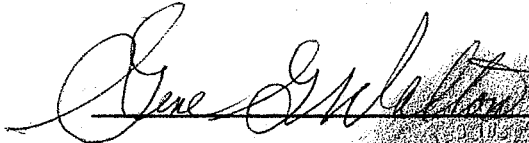

All employees of the City of Lodi shall terminate their employment on the first day of the month next succeeding the month in which they attain the age of 65 years.

Provided, however, that in an unusual case involving the good of the city's service, an employee may be permitted to remain on active duty beyond age sixty-five, but in no event beyond the first day of the month next succeeding the month in which he attains the age of seventy. In each such case, the department head of the employee involved shall submit, in writing, to the city manager a statement of facts, setting forth the reasons why the good of the city's service requires retention of the employee beyond the normal retirement age, which statement of facts shall be submitted at least six months prior to the attainment of the employee of age sixty-five. The city manager shall assess the statement of facts and shall transmit it, together with his written comments and recommendations, to the city council within thirty days prior to the attainment of the employee of age sixty-five. The city council may hold hearings or gather such additional information as it may deem pertinent, and shall rule on the case, which ruling shall be final and conclusive.

Section 2. This ordinance shall be published one time in the "Lodi News Sentinel," a daily newspaper of general circulation printed and published in the City of Lodi, and shall be in force and take effect thirty days from and after its passage.

Approved this 27th day of April, 1966.
